Then-presidential candidate Barack Obama was right when he responded to calls from fellow candidates Hillary Clinton and John McCain for a federal gas tax holiday. It was a bad idea in 2008. It's still a bad idea in 2022.

"We're arguing over a gimmick that would save you half a tank of gas over the course of the entire summer so that everyone in Washington can pat themselves on the back and say they did something. Well, let me tell you, this isn't an idea designed to get you through the summer, it's designed to get them through an election."

Presidential candidate Barack Obama, 2008
